A Time Claimed for God

A friend described to me her daily ninety-minute commute. "Ninety minutes," I commiserated. "Don't feel sorry for me," she smiled, "I use the trip to think about God." She went on to describe how she fills the hour listening to entire books of the Bible. She recites prayers. By the time she reaches her place of employment, she's ready for the day. She says, "I turn my commute into my chapel."

Is there a block of time you can claim for God? Perhaps turning off the network news and opening your Bible. Set the alarm fifteen minutes earlier. Rather than watch TV as you fall asleep, listen to an audio version of the Bible or a Christian book. Jesus says, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:31-32 ESV).
